

Zilker Neighborhood Association
Meeting Minutes
Faith United Methodist Church
February 25, 2013

The quarterly meeting of the Zilker Neighborhood Association (“ZNA”) was called to order at 6:30 p.m. on the date set forth above.

As the first order of business, the membership discussed wildlife habitat in Austin city limits and what the Zilker neighborhood could do to certify their property and the neighborhood as an urban wildlife habitat.

Gardner Sumner next discussed Little Zilker Park, Austin Parks Recreation Day, and tree maintenance throughout the city.

Bill Bunch discussed the Barton Springs Pool master plan. In particular, Mr. Bunch discussed the expansion of parking around Barton Springs and advocated not expanding impervious cover around Barton Springs. The membership then discussed alternative plans in which the impervious cover was not increased, but the back side of the pool was paved. Upon a motion made and seconded the membership upon majority vote agreed to not increase the impervious cover, to promote ways to reduce impervious cover around Barton Springs, and provide neighborhood access other than walking through the parking lot.

Lorraine Atherton discussed the creating a ZNA corridor study committee for South Lamar Boulevard.

Jeff Jack then presented proposed changes to the helistop code and the F-1 use of the helistops. The membership discussed.

As the next item of business, David Davis discussed the development and variance at 1201 Robert E. Lee. Upon a motion made and seconded, a majority of the membership voted to oppose the proposed zoning change unless the developer agrees to the conditions set forth by the neighbors.

As the next item of business, Gardner Sumner and Jeff Jack discussed Taco Cabana Plan Unit Development. The membership discussed.

Walter Moreau then discussed the Goodwill project on South Lamar. Upon motion and second, the Membership by a majority vote agreed to provide a letter of support for the Goodwill project. Elizabeth Yevich recused herself from the vote.

Upon a motion duly made and second, the meeting was then adjourned.
